TELEGRAMS

(By Havas Agency)

Paris, 9th—Queen Victoria will leave Grasse for England next week.

Brussels, 9th—The papers advise Parliament to discuss the Labour Bills at once, and take steps to prevent the strike that is threatened all over the country.

Constantinople, 9th—Influenza is raging in all the chief ports of the Black Sea; and in this city also many people have been attacked.

Rome, 9th—Telegrams from Massouah say that Count Antonelli left this morning for Italy, having first carried out his orders from the Italian Government.

Berlin, April 10th—The Press of Hanover is generally in favour of Bismark's candidature; his election is deemed certain.

Vienna, April 10th—The Austro-Hungarian Reichsrath opened yesterday, and immediately commenced to validate the recent elections. The official opening of the regular sittings will take place to-morrow; it is stated that the speech from the Throne will contain important declarations.

THE NAPOSTA SUFFERERS.

We announced yesterday that some charitable ladies had undertaken the task of alleviating the sufferings of the unfortunate Naposta colonists, who are now lodged at the Immigrants' Hotel, near the Retiro. It seems a burlesque to speak of the place as an hotel, since the inmates have no beds, and sleep on the bare boards. The convicts at Palermo penitentiary are provided with beds, but this is a luxury denied to the English and Irish settlers brought out here by the Argentine Government. Some of the children are absolutely naked, and the ladies to whom we allude were busy yesterday in procuring clothing for them. Most of the girls have been removed to the Irish Convent, Calle Rio Bamba, corner of Tucuman, and for their temporary maintenance the same ladies have got up a subscription, as the Convent has no resources for the purpose. We have no doubt that the British public will warmly support these efforts on behalf of the sufferers.

In speaking of these poor people we should perhaps rather call them "the Naposta survivors," since a large number of the original settlers have left their bones there. If we are rightly informed more than 100 deaths occurred during the two years since the colony was established, and the sufferings of those who have survived make us almost wonder that any have lived to tell the tale. There is nothing so terrible in the records of Buenos Ayres.

The first person we met at the Hotel was a respectable Irishwoman named Behan, who came out in the "Dresden" with five grown-up sons and a daughter; the eldest of the sons was 21 years of age, and all five died of typhoid fever. The next was a carpenter, who was earning 33 shillings a week at Limerick, when the Argentine agents prevailed on him to break up his home and come to Buenos Ayres, where they said he could earn 15 shillings a day. It would be tedious to recount the history of the immigrants, or to go over the harrowing tale of what they have endured in the last two years.

These unfortunate people were induced by an agent named Dillon to come to Buenos Ayres. They were promised free Homestead grants and the support of the Government, but on arrival they found such promises were illusory. In an unlucky moment they accepted Mr. Gartland's proposal to settle at Naposta, and the result could not have proved more disastrous.

At present we have only to think of doing something for the survivors. There was a rumor current last week that the Government proposed to send them up to Misiones or the Gran Chaco, but this would be manifestly an act of cruelty, since they could never stand the severity of a tropical climate. There would not be twenty survivors in two years. It is much better for the Government to let them remain in the Immigrants' Hotel until they can find occupation in the province of Buenos Ayres, or else in Santa Fe and Entre Rios.

Meantime we make a strenuous appeal to the Irish estancieros to come to the rescue of our poor countrymen. One or two have already taken each a family, and if others would imitate their example we should have the satisfaction to see the whole business satisfactorily concluded. We appeal to the Irish chaplains in the rural districts to use their influence to this end. Above all we appeal to the Irish women of Buenos Ayres to shew that they have warm hearts and tender sympathy for the Naposta sufferers.

The children are almost naked, the people are sleeping on the boards; nevertheless they are not despondent, but seem to think that a better future is reserved for them. The hardships they at present endure, with patience, are nothing to what they have experienced at Naposta.

Meantime we shall be happy to further in every way possible the efforts of the ladies who are labouring so earnestly on the behalf of the sufferers, by receiving old clothes or subscriptions at this office. There are many very wealty Irishwomen in the "camp" districts who can lend us prompt and valuable aid. There never was an occasion on which it was more needed.

The Rev. Mother of the Irish Convent will be glad if English families will apply to her for the girls, many of whom are smart and of an age to be useful.

In connection with the Naposta Colony it would be unjust to allow the present notice to pass without observing, on the authority of Mr. Arthur Herbert, secretary of Legation, that great praise is due to Mr. Wilson, who has had at heart the interests of the colonists and rendered valuable service. We may further say that the Gt. Southern Railway has done everything for the poor people that kindness could suggest. Their luggage was yesterday despatched free of charge.

THE COLERIDGE MAILS.

VERY FAST TRIP.

TWENTY DAYS FROM ENGLAND.

We are indebted to Capt. Brown for London papers of March 19th which contain the following news:—

In the House of Commons yesterday, Mr. Rowlands moved the second reading of the Bill for local veto on the sale of intoxicating liquors in Wales. The Bill provided that two-thirds of the majority of owners and occupiers voting on the question in any district should have power to shut up public-houses in that district.

The Home Secretary opposed the Bill, which, he said, was so unjust that it did not prohibit the importation of drink, so that the rich man might store his cellars with as much drink as he liked, while the poor man had to go beyond his district for what he required for the legitimate wants of his family.

Mr. Morely supported the principle of the Bill, leaving himself free in reference to the machinery and details. On a division the second reading was carried by 185 to 179.

The Queen and the Empress Frederick visited Eton College yesterday, for the purpose of unveiling a statue of Her Majesty. The Empress unveiled the statue, and returned, with the Queen, to Windsor Castle.

Telephonic communication was opened yesterday between Paris and London, and congratulations were exchanged between Mr. Raikes and M. Jules Roche, the Minister of Commerce. Lord Lytton also engaged in conversation with the Postmaster-General. The voice is heard more clearly than it is upon many land lines that are much shorter.

The first death that has occurred in consequence of the injection of cantharidine, Dr. Liebreich's remedy for tuberculosis, took place last Saturday in the Hospital in Berlin. Death is said to have been caused by the action of the medicament on the kidneys.

Particulars have been received of the terrible disaster which befell the British steamer Utopia in Gibraltar Bay on Tuesday evening. Whilst on her way to New York the Utopia was putting into Gibraltar for coal when she was driven by the heavy sea against the ram of Her Majesty's ironclad Anson, and sank within fifteen minutes. Boats immediately put off from the vessels of the Channel Squadron to rescue those on board the Utopia, and by these and other means twenty-four of the crew and two hundred and ninety-two passengers were saved; but thirty-six of the crew and five hundred and thirty-eight Italian emigrants were drowned.

A fire broke out early yesterday morning in a tenement house in New York, in which fifty-one people were sleeping.

At the annual meeting of the Institution of Naval Architects yesterday, a discussion on our future Naval policy was initiated by a paper read by Lord Brassey, who observed that the time must shortly come when a further programme of shipbuilding would have to be considered. Admiral Colomb, Vice-Admiral Hopkins and Admiral Mayne joined in the discussion.

Fine weather prevailed yesterday over the country generally, but in the south-east of England the sky was very cloudy.

Prince Soltykoff's Lord George won the Lincolnshire Handicap yesterday, M. Ephrussi's Seraphine II. being second, and Colonel North's Nunthorpe third. Eighteen others ran.

The trial of Mr. Charles Lyddon on the charge of murdering his half-brother, Dr. Lyddon, by poison, at Faversham, was commenced yesterday at the Central Criminal Court. Evidence was given of the execution by the deceased of an assignment of his business to the Prisoner as security for a debt, and the further proceedings were adjourned.

Mr. Justice Grantham and a jury yesterday tried an action for false imprisonment brought against Mr. E. J. Greenleaf, an inspector of the Isle of Wight Constabulary. The Plaintiff, Abraham Harris, when selling penny articles from a tray at New Port, was given into custody for not having a pedlar's licence, but was discharged. The question at issue in the action was whether the Plaintiff was acting as a pedlar, and as his Lordship ruled in the negative the jury awarded him ten pounds damages.

At the Central Criminal Court yesterday the three men, Culmer, Capsey, and Loveday, who had been convicted of conspiracy to defraud various fire insurance companies, were brought up for judgment. Mr. Justice Hawkins sentenced them severally to eighteen months' imprisonment.

Lawrence Cloete, Consul General for Persia, was further charged yesterday with having obtained sixteen thousand seven hundred pounds from a lady named Page by false pretences, with intent to defraud, and another remand was ordered.

Money was quoted at 2½ per cent yesterday, and the discount rate was also 2½ per cent. Prices were better on the Stock Exchange for Home Railway Stocks and Foreign Bonds, but worse for American Railways. Consols also fell to 96⅛. The Bank lost net £122,000 in gold exported, but for the week the net imports have been £86,000.

THE CHILIAN REVOLUTION.

The Argentine Minister of Foreign Affairs informed the Chilian Minister yesterday that the troops of the Camus division at Antofagasta were at liberty to cross Argentine territory, provided the men were disarmed and did not proceed in organised bodies. In fact, there appears to have been an excess of international courtesy on the part of the Chilian Minister in requesting permission for the transit of the disarmed troops; or did the Chilian Envoy suppose for a moment that the Argentine Government would allow the Camus division to cross this territory with shouldered arms, banners flying and bands playing?

Telegrams from Mendoza announce that the officers and crew of the Chilian gunboat "Pilcomayo," anchored in Dock No. 2, have arrived at the Cordillera and are quartered in the residence of the Chilian Consul in the suburbs. Several officers have arrived at Mendoza from Antofagasta; they were present at the encounter in Pozo Almonte, and confirm the rout of the Government troops. After the rout they fell back on Antofagasta. Here the regiments Talca and Aconcagua mutinied and went over to the rebel side. Seeing the turn in affairs, and fearing the spread of the revolutionary spirit, Colonel Camus wisely abandoned Antofagasta as the mutineers were embarking on board the "Esmeralda" and "Amazonas." Camus endeavoured to establish his head-quarters at Calama, but his men deserted in companies; he then disarmed the men and crossed into Bolivian territory. They say that President Arce is partial to the Balmaceda cause.

The Government forces at Tacna and Arica are reported to have deposed arms and crossed the Peruvian frontier. Further advices state that thousands of Bolivian workmen have abandoned the province of Tarapaca at the instigation of the Bolivian Government, who furnished all the means of conveyance by land and water for the purpose.

The revolutionary forces are now put down at 10,000 men, with 40 Krupp guns, Mauser rifles and plenty of ammunition and mitrailleuses. The campaign in the South of Chile will begin before the end of this month, and the revolutionary chiefs, elated by their success in the North, are very hopeful. It looks as if Balmaceda will have to decide the struggle at the very gates of his capital.

All Argentine newspapers are boycotted by the Chilian Government.

Latest telegrams from Santiago announce an unexpected movement in the rebel fleet: thus several war-vessels were sighted off Llota and Llico. The Blanco Encalada went in near shore and fired a shell in the Pichileno Bay. Towards evening the fleet went off to sea.

The Chilian Government has suspended traffic on the Chañaral railway and has ordered all the employees, excepting the manager and accountant, to be dismissed after 31st May.

In Government circles in Santiago nobody believes in the hostility of the French Government and in the rumours that the French authorities will detain the Chilian ironclads building in the French dockyards. It is even said that the agents of Balmaceda have already taken over the iron-clad President Errazuriz and are waiting in Havre for officers and crew from Chile.

The following telegram was sent to President Pellegrini yesterday by the Governor of Jujuy, who received it from the Sub-Prefect at Tupica:

"Bands of Chilian soldiers are on their way. They comprise 200 officers, 2,200 rank and file and 15 civilians. They will be here in six days more, and will take the train to Mendoza and go thence to Santiago across the Andes. At Ollaga they laid down their arms before the Bolivian authorities. They are behaving very well on the way, and have supplies and $200,000 in money.

MONTEVIDEO.

THE SAILORS' HOME.

The Entertainment given on Tuesday evening by way of inauguration of this excellent institution proved an unmitigated success. One hundred persons were present, including the Revd. W. B. Chamberlain, the Rev. Francis (H.M.S. Cleopatra) the Rev. E. Greenman, several resident ladies and gentlemen interested in the institution, and a fine gathering of officers, men and marines from H.M.S. Cleopatra, Basilisk and Bramble and U.S.S. Tallapoosa. Tea was served under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. Williams, the superintendents of the institution, and to which the Jack Tars did full justice. Shortly after 8 commenced the entertainment, consisting of a long list of songs, recitations and pianoforte music, Dr. Lawrie officiating as chairman. Needless to say that every piece was applauded most warmly, and the disinterested performers found ample recompense in the attentive faces and pleased looks of their auditors. The residents who contributed to the programme were Mrs. G. Lloyd Davies, Miss Cooper and the Misses Miles, Mr. G. Lloyd Davies, Mr. Williams and Mr. Denstone. The other items, including songs, recitations and a most diverting stump speech were given by Messrs. Christie, Brehout, Pascoe, Gilbertson, Pratt and Davis, from various vessels in port. Miss Anita Miles won all hearts present by her graceful and modest recitation of "Little Bow Blue." With so charming an advocate the temperance cause will never want for disciples. At the end of the programme the Rev. Francis made a short speech, giving hearty thanks, in the name of the fleet, to those residents who had contributed towards establishing the Home, and also to those who organised and took part in the entertainment.

We trust that this entertainment, so thoroughly successful, will be the forerunner of many more equally pleasant gatherings in which the ladies and gentlemen of this city will continue to take an interest.

The building selected for the home, at the corner opposite the Port market, is admirably suited for the purpose, all the rooms being airy and well ventilated, each having a window to the street. This has been prepared and furnished by the sub-committee consisting of Dr. Lawrie and Mr. E. Cooper, who must be warmly congratulated on their success. Besides reading, writing and dining rooms, the Home affords sleeping accommodation for some fifty persons, the beds being models of comfort, neatness and cleanliness. We have no hesitation in saying that the institution has already justified the appeals made on its behalf, and the only fear is that it will prove too small for its purpose.

M. V. Times.

WINE-GROWING IN CATAMARCA.

In the subjoined letter from Mr Lafone Quevedo it will be seen that Catamarca is making great strides in the production of wine. Our correspondent, meantime, puts the production a little too high when he says a million gallons yearly. In the first place, 4 litres will not make a gallon, the litre being just 22 per cent of our English measure. We accept the most of Mr. Lafone's figures as to the production measured in litres, and find the probable yield thus:

	Litres.	Gallons.
Andalgalá	1,200,000	270,000
Belen, Poman, &c	1,200000	270,000
Valle Viejo.....	800,000	180,000
Total.....	3,200,000	720,000

Catamarca, therefore, occupies the 4th place among Argentine provinces for wine-growing, the others being San Juan, Mendoza and Rioja, which produce collectively over 6,000,000 gallons. The following is Mr. Lafone's letter:—

Pilciao, near Andalgalá,
Catamarca, April 3.

Mr. Editor,

Allow me to correct some of your statistics as regards the wine production of the Province of Catamarca. You put it down at the insignificant sum of 200,000 gallons.

Calculating the gallon at 4 litres, the production of the Fort of Andalgalá alone aucounted in 1890 to over 300,000 gallons.

Belen, Santa Maria, Tinogasta and the Pueblos of San Jil-Poman can fight their own battles better for themselves than I can do it for them; but I am quite certain they would not allow that they produced less than we do, taken all together. Indeed I expect they would be only too ready to protest against such a low estimate, and perhaps justly. You must also bear in mind the Catamarca basin proper also produces wine and brandy, and that "many littles make a mickle"; therefore it would be more prudent and nearer the truth if you put down our province as producing 1,000,000 (one million) gallons.

Andalgalá is quite an industrious little place, which makes, consumes and exports its 300,000 gallons in spite of prohibitive freights. We pay $20 per 25 gallons to Salta, $7 to Tucuman, and yet our trade survives.

Our new plantations before very long must double the produce of the vintage, and a better grape will soon improve our old growths.

At present we are getting about $18 net for 25 gallons in our "bodegas".

So you see, Mr. STANDARD, that, boom or no boom, we work on steadily increasing the wealth of the country to the extent of over a million gallons a year, and this fact should be recognised by you.

I remain, &c.,
Samt. A. Lafone Quevedo.

THE NAPOSTA SUFFERERS.

March 9th.

Mr. Editor,

According to the advice in the STANDARD of yesterday regarding British emigrants, myself and friend visited the Hotel with the hope of finding 4 servants. We saw some that were likely to suit and willing to leave. My friend offered 2 girls respectively $15 and $10 per month and clothes, bed and food; and if they were willing and good girls they were given to understand that they would receive more. To our disgust the parents wanted for a girl $25 per month and everything found. Of course this was impossible; we then saw the father of another girl, aged about 14, he was willing to let her go but wanted $20 per month with clothing, bed and food. This is ridiculous, when one can get here in the city a good general servant for say 25 to 30 (and then not find bed nor clothes.) There was a gentleman offering a home for two girls, I myself wanted one and one for a friend of mine, all English families, and were willing to give them a good home, feed and clothe them, and give them a wage which ought to have been ample considering the state they are now in; and several ladies who visited the home were treated in exactly the same way. One would have thought that the comforts of a good home and clothes would have been a sufficient inducement for them to leave such a wretched place as the Hotel. Trusting you will publish this in your next.

I beg to subscribe myself.
Disgusted.

(Ed. Note) The gentleman who writes us the above ought to have taken a letter of recommendation from the British Consul. The fact is that the poor people are naturally suspicious when strangers come looking for young girls. We feel certain that many of the girls will gladly accept the comfort and security of an English home at $10 or $15 a month wages if application be made for them at the Irish convent, Calle Tucuman, corner of Rio Bamba, where most of the girls are now housed.

THE BARING COLLAPSE.

BANK OF ENGLAND MEETING.

A half-yearly general Court of the Governors and Company of the Bank of England was held in the Bank parlour, for the purpose of declaring a dividend.

Mr. John Lidderdale (the Governor), who presided, in opening the proceedings, said that he had to acquaint the court that the net profit for the half-year ended February 23 last was £766,834 3s. 6d., making the amount of rest on that day £3,777,585; adding to this the amount of £72,765 released from the amount put aside to meet the claims in the case of Vagliano Brothers, the rest was raised to £3,850,350. After providing a dividend of £5 15s. per cent., the rest would be £3,013,553 2s. 6d. Referring to the Baring difficulties, and the Bank's action in relation to them, he said:—"So much has already been said and written upon the subject that I need not occupy you very long. You must all have learned from the press that in the second week in November it became known to the Bank that the great house of Baring was in difficulties. For an announcement that the firm were embarrassed by their operations in South America the Governors would to some extent have been prepared, but they were not prepared for the actual facts. The situation was at once recognised as very grave, and as one which demanded prompt and decided action on the part of the directors. It was decided to adopt exceptional measures, even at a considerable sacrifice to the Bank. In the course of a couple of days we secured, by the sale of Exchequer bonds to the State Bank of Russia, the sum of £1,500,000 in gold, and obtained from Paris, as a loan, by the prompt and liberal action of the Bank of France, a further sum of £3,000,000 as an addition to our resources. Four days of that week were occupied in the preparation of a statement of Messrs. Baring's position, and on November 11 I was enabled to assure the heads of Her Majesty's Government that there was good reason to believe, without committing myself to definite figures, that the assets would yield a substantial surplus over the liabilities if sufficient time were allowed for the liquidation. Without this belief in their full eventual solvency nothing could have been done to save the firm. When I tell you that the liabilities of Messrs. Baring Brothers were over £21,000,000 sterling, you will recognise that the burden of carrying them over their difficulty was not to be lightly undertaken, even by the Bank of England, and that the risk of doing so was more than the Bank was called upon to undertake alone. It was necessary, therefore, to invoke the aid and support of the financial community in forming a guarantee fund to justify the Bank in providing the money required. It was nearly five o'clock on the afternoon of Friday when the guarantee list was opened and headed with £1,000,000 sterling by the Bank of England; by eleven o'clock the next morning (Saturday) it was £6,590,000; and at twelve o'clock I was able to announce that the liabilities of the firm would be duly met. (Hear, hear.) This, however, did not prevent large further additions to the guarantee fund, which eventually reached £17,250,000, rendering it certain that, even if the liquidation proved disappointing, the loss to any individual guarantor could hardly be serious.

You will, no doubt, wish to know how the liquidation has progressed. On November 1 the liabilities stood at about £21,000,000, and the assets apparently at about £24,800,000. Since then numerous entries had been made on both sides of the account, additional drafts having come forward and remittances been received, but on March 1 the liabilities to the public have been raised to £3,522,000. The debt to the Bank had, however, reached £6,650,000, making a total of £10,172,000 still due. The assets in bills and cash were on March 1 £847,000, and the debts due to the firm were £3,364,000, making a total of £4,213,000. To cover the advance of nearly £6,000,000 there were securities in hand to a considerably larger extent. Of these, the partners' lands, houses, and private property represent over £1,000,000, and the securities, the value of which are hardly ascertainable, about £1,250,000. The balance consists of South American securities, which are much more difficult to estimate. Whenever there are quotations we have taken the very lowest; in other cases we have put a very low price; and I can only say again, without committing myself to figures, that, unless the market for South American securities has seriously declined since November 1, there is still, to all appearance, a substantial surplus over the liabilities, a surplus, in my opinion, quite sufficient to protect the guarantors. In illustration of our estimate I may take a single large item—that of the Unified Uruguay 6 per cent Loan of £2,000,000. This we have taken at 50, the quotations for similar bonds now in the market being 55 and 57. The interest on the Unified Loan has been regularly paid, and, judging by the desire shown by that Government to maintain their credit, will, we hope, continue to be paid. I think you may have a reasonable hope that the efforts made by the Bank to protect the country from that failure will result in no loss to the Bank or to those who have come forward to our assistance. I have now only to propose that the half-year's dividend of interest and profit be made of £5 15s. per cent, without deduction on account of income-tax.

Mr. Botley, in seconding the motion, said that had it not been for the prompt and wise action of the Governor and directors of the Bank a crisis more severe than that of 1864 would have arisen, and he thought the Governor well deserved the compliment of the freedom of the city.

The Governor said the rate of interest paid to the Bank of France was 3 per cent upon the amount of the loan, and, in addition to that, the Bank of England paid the cost of transmission both ways. That cost was about ¼ per cent.

The dividend resolution was then passed, and, on the motion of Mr. John Jones, a special vote of thanks was accorded to the Governor and directors of the Bank for the services they had rendered in relation to the Baring difficulties.

The Governor acknowledged the vote, and the meeting separated.

MURRIETAS, LIMITED.

We are able to announce to-day that the arrangements which have been in progress for some days in connection with Messrs. Murrieta and Co. are now completed, and an official statement to that effect may be looked for almost immediately. The business is to be turned into a limited company, with a share capital of £2,000,000 and £1,000,000 of Five per Cent Debentures. It is understood that the Debentures have been taken up privately by the various trust companies, and that the share capital will be placed among the partners in the firm; and there is a proviso that the Debentures may be redeemed within a certain time, at a premium, if the firm should think well to do so. The articles of association are in course of preparation, and everything is expected to be successfully carried through in the course of to-day or to-morrow. This announcement will unquestionably be a relief to the stock markets. It would probably have had a disastrous effect on the City if the negotiations had not been crowned with success. Apart altogether from the question of the firm's actual financial position, the mere fact that they were known to have been seeking such a way out of temporary embarrassments, and had failed to secure it, would have begotten a feeling of distrust, and possibly have brought about a renewal, in a modified form, of last year's crisis. Directly it became public property that the advisers of the firm considered the proposed change necessary, it was almost a matter of public importance that the project should be carried through. If the negotiations had unfortunately collapsed, the construction that would have been put upon the failure would almost certainly have involved a strain on the firm's credit. It would have been assumed that the surplus, whose existence they asserted, was either considerably smaller than their estimate, or was of such an unliquid character that no financial trust, or other relief agency, could undertake the responsibilities of the estate. This conclusion, whether justifiable or not, would have caused widespread apprehension. It needs no great amount of imagination to picture how the upshot would have been exaggerated so far as the stock markets are concerned. The announcement we have made happily removes all doubt on the subject, and dispels the sinister forebodings of those who have nursed the expectation of a less favourable issue. The fact that the trust companies and finance houses have seen their way to take up the Debentures indicates very clearly that they are satisfied with the soundness of the position, and have no doubt as to the successful future of the firm when it has had time to liquidate advantageously the securities for which a market cannot at present be found. It is to be hoped that we have now heard the last of financial complications arising out of the South American depreciation. It has been a maleficent business at the best, charged with distressing consequences in more than one direction. Within the space of a few months we have seen two financial houses of the first rank disorganized, to use no stronger term, by their inability to realize a very considerable portion of their assets. That one of these episodes was more complete than the other does not weaken the force of the argument to be drawn from the fact of their common origin. To harp upon that argument now would be an act of supererogation; we prefer to express gratification that the Murrieta incident has been tided over with such confidence and judgment, and that the possibility of even temporary trouble in so important a quarter no longer hangs like a cloud over the situation.

BAHIA BLANCA.

(From our correspondent)

A cosmopolitan institution has recently been formed at Bahia Blanca, and a concert was given in the Society's rooms (Calle O'Higgins 174) on Saturday evening last. Doors were open at 8.30 p.m. and before 9 p.m. the room was crowded. The audience, which was composed of the 'elite' of Bahia Blanca) was, as regards nationality, very varied, including British, Spanish, French, Germans, etc.

First item on the programme was 'Capricho Original,' pianoforte solo by Sr. Francisco Maimo, which was magnificently executed by that gentleman. Mr. W. Anderson (who so ably distinguished himself in a former entertainment at same room) was down for two songs and great regret was expressed at his non-appearance. Sr. A. Rodriguez, as a substitute for Mr. Anderson, gave a guitar solo which was highly appreciated. Sr. Rodriguez was hardly so successful in his two subsequent performances, viz, song "Las Golondrinas" and "Declamacion." The two pianoforte and violin duets from Ballo en Maschera and Lucia de Lammermoor by Señores Deuker and Maimó were beyond all praise. Zither solo by Mr. Guillermo Brems, elicited an encore. Señorita Nielo's pianoforte solo El Trovador was tastefully played by that young lady, and highly applauded by the audience. Song "Dance Jubilee" by Mr. M. G. Dixon, in nigger costume, brought down the house, and the great complaint against his encore song was its brevity.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

The Manager of the Central Cordoba Railway has asked the Public Works' Department for permission to make a junction at kil. 335 of his main line with a branch constructed by Sr. Sotomayor to a colony established by him. The advantage to be thereby derived by the Central Cordoba would be the facility afforded of obtaining wood for the locomotives.

Mr. N. Bouwer, the representative of the Argentine Great Western, has asked the Government for £71746 6s. 8d., the amount of the guarantee for the six months ending the 31st ult.

The N. R. Board have informed the Minister of the Interior that, the B. A. and Rosario line being now open to the public as far as Tucuman, it would be advisable to effect a junction between it and the Central Northern by means of a mixed line (two gauges) so as to allow the carriages and wagons of each Company to reach as far as the station belonging to the other, thus greatly facilitating transport.

Engineer Briau has asked the Government to exempt the Western Railway Company from payment of import duties on material brought in by them in pursuance of the Decree dated 23rd November 1870.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

After a storm comes a calm. Things in general were as dull as ditchwater yesterday, and the fizzing enthusiasm of the previous two days about Bank reform gave place to a where-are-we kind of feeling that was very general. Most of our Argentine friends are dropping silent tears over the fall of the Provincial Bank; but nobody seems to break his heart about the fate of the National concern.

The news from Chile leads to the belief that the decisive stand-up fight is not far off, and Balmaceda may pack his trunks.

We are requested by the Hon. Secretary of the British and American Benevolent Society to acknowledge donations of wearing apparel for the Naposta colonists from Mrs Allen, Mrs Williamson, Mrs Stott, Mrs Whittaker, Mrs Gardom, Mr. Frank Mulhall, and Mr. Holland, besides two parcels sent anonymously.

We are requested to advise the English church congregations in San Martin and Belgrano that the Vestry Meetings of their respective churches will be held on Monday and Tuesday evenings respectively.

St. John's Church is quite the St. George's, Hanover Square, of the South. There was on Thursday another fashionably attended wedding at that church, on which occasion the nuptials of Mr. F. Salmon and Miss Hooton were celebrated. The service was again choral, and Mr. Frank Barnes presided at the organ with his accustomed skill.

The Patria Italiana says that its countrymen here will not sell their principal bank to John Bull, or any other man, no matter what he may offer for it.

There is distressing news from Rio. The market for blood horses and second-hand carriages from the River Plate has burst up, and no one now even looks at a pair of prancing Russians, much less thinks of buying them.

Peuser's library has now on sale Mr. Vasco Guzman's interesting book on "The Naturalization of Foreigners." It contains 200 pages.

Rumours of another revolutionary flare-up in the Garden of the Republic were afloat yesterday, but were flatly contradicted in well-informed quarters. Nobody believes in revolutions in these piping times of banking reform, public retrenchment and general repentance for the follies of the past. Argentina means to try and be a good girl in the future. She has certainly been rather "loud" and "fast" for some years past.

No wonder that our precious municipality is monetarily and metaphorically "on the broad of its back." In 1889—that never-to-be-forgotten year of boom and bunkum—it spent the phenomenal amount of $180,000 for printing rubbishy report, s etc., etc., and $102,352 for pens, ink, paper, sealing wax, etc. Last year the amounts were $31,000 and $67,600 respectively. In 1889 sealing wax—at least municipal sealing wax—used to cost $50 a stick; lead pencils $100 a dozen, and so on. Will no member of the Town Council rise in his place and call for the name of the enterprising stationer who supplied the articles at such patriotic prices?

It is said that the Provincial Bank accepted over $700,000 in deposits at interest on the afternoon before the famous bombshell decree. The owners of the cash now feel both sore and sorry, and wish it was still where it was before it was where it is.

Messrs. Cassells & Co., who light the mushroom city of La Plata by electricity, have suffered, like everybody else, from the backwardness of the Government in coming forward to pay for the light; and have resolved to reduce the number of lamps in the streets by one half. In their polite letter to the Minister of Government they hint that the other half will also have to be extinguished soon, if some satisfactory arrangement be not speedily made.

In Rosario on Wednesday there was not a single death, a thing that has not been recorded there for very many years.

The illustrated London papers to hand are very good. The old News, stimulated, no doubt, by fresh competition, is better than ever, and evidently means to continue to lead the hunt.

The silly report that Dr. Donovan, Chief of Police, had had a violent dispute with his predecessor, General Capdevila, and ordered the latter under arrest, is contradicted as utterly devoid of foundation. The times are so out of joint that every Three Black Crows story flying about is eagerly swallowed.

Dr. Pizarro, the Justice of Peace who married the idiot girl in Rosario the other day, is to be tried for the crime. It appears that the Justice is also a "vista" in the Custom House. This may account for his loose notions of the duties of his judicial position. The case has caused great indignation in Rosario. The shameless old bridegroom should be put in the dock as well as the unworthy magistrate.

The Argentine Great Western Railway men don't read the newspapers. They recently carried a lot of people with passes purporting to be signed by Dr. Quirno Costa, but on presenting them for payment they were found to be gross forgeries. As several months have elapsed since Dr. Q. C. left the cares of office, it is rather funny to find the officials of the railway in question unaware of the fact. Perhaps they are still under the impression that Dr. Juarez is President of the Republic.

Chicago has developed a youthful prodigy of a violinist named Dimond. He is a boy of only fifteen years, but his execution of difficult compositions is said to be phenomenal. His favorite instrument is an old plantation fiddle that used to belong to one of his grandfather's slaves.

There is no suburb of the city that shews more steady advance in all that constitutes real, material progress than Lomas de Zamora. The two chief streets are paved with cut stone (adoquines) and new buildings are going up on all sides. The Protestant church has not alone been enlarged but almost rebuilt by the Revd. Mr. Pinchard, the popular and zealous rector.

Amongst the passengers to Europe last week per Alfonso XIII was Señor Don Jose Ripole, proprietor of the San Luis College in Calle Lavalle, close to the Jesuits' church. Don Jose's numerous pupils wish him a pleasant "paseo", hoping soon to see him back at home and duty.

A deputation of eight polished expolicemen, representing 150 more who have recently thrown the cares of state to the three Ds and retired into private life, waited yesterday on the Minister of the Interior begging for his good offices to procure for them their arrears of pay, as, without his assistance, they fear that the Last Day will find them still unpaid. General Roca was not in the Government House at the moment, but Dr. Zorilla, the under Secretary, told the applicants to put their case in writing and it would be duly considered.

The intervention of the S. F. T. P. O. C. T. A. (we're tired) saved sixty seven animals, mostly horses, from their tormentors last month. The figure is less than usual; but the number of holidays in March is probably the cause of this. It is only fashionable that animals are tortured (and with impunity, unfortunately) on holidays by being overdriven, while their poor heads are held in an unnatural position by the bearing-rein.

The many vacant lots on the half-finished Boulevard are to be let to whoever will rent them. This is a sensible way to bring grist to the Municipal mill than the fantastic idea of "musical" entertainments at Palermo. A "musica", one of the most abundant "productos del pais," would bring in a whopping revenue.

The case of an Italian emigrant who walked recently from Santa Catalina in Brazil to the Banda Oriental frontier, a distance of 300 leagues, is reported. He says he had a h moment, but sellers were always to the fore, and eventually the rate fell to close at 52.50, sovereigns leaving off at 16.40. In the Patriotic Bonds 74,500 changed hands, opening at 61 and closing at 62. This was the only stock that held up, as National Bank shares, Catalinas and Cedulas all seemed weaker, due to the rise in gold. Another lot of Credito Real shares changed hands at 28, which is a firm rate for this stock.

In the exchange market the fluctuation of gold is a great drag on business, rates changing continuously. We hear of some bills passed at 48d., 5.12-14 fcs. and 4.16 marks, shewing a fall on previous quotations.

The Board of the Riachuelo Works have asked the Government for authority to spend $12,000 in the purchase of a lighter to be turned into a sanatorium for the Darsena and Madero Port Works.

The Board of the Riachuelo Works have resolved to knock off night work from May 1st for the same reason as last year. As this will involve a saving in wages of $14,000 per month, the Board have determined to commence the widening of the Riachuelo, a work which will not cost more than half that amount per month.

The Finance Minister has issued a decree approving the modifications in the Statutes of the Banco Constructor de La Plata, amongst these being the reduction of the capital from 20 to 7½ million.

The three carriages imported by ex-President Juarez Celman were to-day sold at auction by order of the Government for $1700.

Arrivals per launches : 33,456 kilos of wool, 142 kilos of shorn sheepskins. Total weight, 186,867 kilos.

Passengers arrived per Lamport and Holt packet Coleridge :—Dr. Edward Hanly, Mrs. Hanly, Dudley Hanly, John Hanly, Hada Hanly, Minnie Rowe, Ellen Creighton, Margaret Ritchie, Christopher Ward, Charles Heylock, Rev. Chas. Batstone, Mr. Cross, Mrs. Robinson, Mr. Chichester, Mr. Holland, Mr. Fair, Mr. Hubbard, Mrs. Jacobs, Miss Mary Jacobs, Mr. Frederick Jacobs, Miss Alice Jacobs, Laurence Jacobs, Valeria Jacobs, Maud Jacobs, Walter Jacobs, Arthur Jacobs, Edward Jacobs, Matilda Maurisse, Ellen Boden Mr. Conrad Hughes, Mrs. Hughes, Thomas Hughes, Blanca Hughes, Henry Hughes, Edward Hughes, Jane Blake, Mrs. Ramsey, Isabel Ramsey, Agnes Nonimo.

Mr. Jacuisch, so long connected with our wool market, was welcomed to-day. He has been two years absent and sees wondrous changes for the worse in the Plate. He goes to the fine estancia Nueva Palatina which he founded five years ago.

It is curious to note how some of our colleagues are harking back again to the old love, and tuning up the strings that have never given out anything but discord. One says the colossus must be saved; another that the cradles of Argentine finance cannot thus be rudely shattered at a stroke. And more curious is it still that whilst all feel and cannot refrain from admitting, that the Minister has hit upon the root of the disease they should still feel such reluctance to the application of the Scalpel. The State Banks must be saved for sooth! And were they not saved by the decree which threw upon the National Government the weight of their engagements with their depositors, engagements that could never have been discharged but for this timely aid. The banks, on sapient colleagues, need no saving now, but what is necessary and absolutely inevitable is the "cuatro de sistema" to which the whole market echoed, when Mr. Anderson in the Bolsa parlour informed the Camara Sindical that on this hinged everything. State banking is doomed. It has dug its own grave and driven the last nail into its own coffin, and not all the eloquence of the press hankering after a fallen idol can give it life or even the shadow of being again. "Actum est" has been written in indelible characters over the remnants of a shattered and diseased system. As day is done.

Favoured by a charming autumnal day and the never-failing attractions of a champagne lunch, Don Adolpho Bulrich achieved another great auctioneering victory at Mr. Meeks's chacra, Lomas de Zamora, on Thursday. Quite a number of leading estancieros started from the Plaza Constitucion per 11 a.m. train, arriving at Paradise Grove close on noon, where already several of the neighbours had assembled in search of bargains. The cattle, which had arrived only the day before from outside, although tired looked fat and in good condition. The horses and sheep were the most admired, but the cattle and pigs carried off the palm for high prices.

The first lot put up was the Durham and Hereford cows, 250 with right to double that figure, all knocked down to Manuel Laines for 22 m/n each.

The Holstein 4 blood started at 10 m/n reached 22. Fernandez buyer.

Race Horses—Exeter and Coquelin, purchaser Mr. Wright, 500 and 400 m/n each.

Clydesdale Foals—McFarland & Highland Boy at 700 m/n respectively. J. M. Martinez buyer.

Percheron Foals—Monton, $1050. Duravada buyer. Barbe Bleu, $350. Espinola buyer. Eiffel, $300. J. M. Martinez buyer.

Shetland Ponies—Bicho Feo, $55. Wright buyer. Bob, $30. Sallinez buyer. Don, $55. Espinola buyer.

Jersey Cows (without calf)—Trama, $200. Mr. Agirre buyer.

Tame Bullocks—at $43 each, J. Martinez.

Vaquillonas—at $40 each, E. Aguirre.

Yorkshire pigs—at $65 to 100, Newton Fraga, Lanus, Peralta Ramos.

Shorthorn milch cows at 110 m/n Digo Urquiza.

Nor can we be surprised at such high prices at the very depth of the crisis when we remember that Mrs. Meeks' stock is some of the finest in South America and those who bought yesterday had not much money deposited in State banks.

The killings in the up-river saladeros up to March 31st were as follows :—

WOLSELEY SHEEP SHEARING MACHINE COMPANY LIMITED.

El Recreo, Azul, Marzo 3 de 1891.

Srs. AGAR, CROSS & CO., Calle Defensa 136.

Muy Señores Mios,

Tengo el gusto de comunicar a Vds. que las 4 maquinas de Esquilar sistema Wolseley me han dado un resultado satisfactorio y no queria darles este informe hasta no haber concluido con la esquila de borregas. La maquina trabaja bien, esquilamos con facilidad cualquiera oveja por mas fina y arrugada que sea: saca mas lana que la tijera y tiene la ventaja de no cortar, pero si en algunos casos rasguña descuidandose el esquilador. Estas lastim duras sanan facilmente, y se ha en cada vez menos cuanto mas practica se adquiere. No he notado que se me hayan muerto animales por esta causa.

Convencido de su eficacia pienso colocar doce aparatos para la proxima esquila y creo poder hacer facilmente el trabajo con ellos. Puedo asegurar a Vds. que los esquiladores mas torpes aprenden facilmente, prefiriendolas a la tijera.

A LOS

CONSUMIDORES DE GAS.

En vista de la continua depreciacion del papel moneda, que encarece todos los articulos que se emplean en la elaboracion del gas, las Compañias que representamos, sienten tener que avisar a sus consumidores que se ven en la necesidad imperiosa de aumentar el precio.

El gas que seconsuma desde el 1o de Abril sera cobrado por todas las Compañias, en todos los distritos, a razon de $0.32 el metro cubico.

Hacemos saber a nuestros consumidores, que si se valoriza el papel moneda, disminuiremos en proporcion el precio del Gas, y cumunicaremos por medio de avisos, el 23 de cada mes, el precio que regira para el mes siguiente.

Self-Registering Recording Clock.

This clock serves to test employees in warehouses, hospitals, parks, prisons, etc., and in general for watching over every kind of undertaking, such as railways, factories, workshops, etc., also for villages, towns and cities and for police and custom house service. Not only is it a exact timekeeper but at the same time shows clearly at a glance the special watching service on which it is used. It shows on a slip of paper the hour and minute at which it started how much time has been employed from one point to another, and in what direction the rounds have been made. As this clock cannot get out of order, it is an infallible inspector which cannot be influenced by anybody or anything, and also contributes to avoid conflagrations and other losses, and to prevent robberies, frauds and crimes.
